The Reviews Are In!

Ivy Gables is tucked away in the beautiful community of Arden, and the building is adorable and charming. It has a more home-like feel than some of the other senior living communities, and the staff is wonderful. Everyone is always so kind, pleasant, and willing to help. The residents always seem to be engaged in activities and well cared for. I recommend Ivy Gables for families looking for a senior living for their loved ones. – Megan S.

"I chose Ivy Gables because it was clean, in a beautiful area, and there were always smiles - from both residents and staff. It's held up to that expectation in the near year Mom's been there. It's a great place and the best place for Mom as the smaller nature of the facility makes it feel like family and not overwhelming like some of the larger facilities. It's also amazing how they support the entire range of residents, from true independent living through to fully supported living." – Helen M.

Opportunities to Explore the Area

Located in the picturesque Arden village of Wilmington, Del., our senior living community is close to the Candlelight Theatre, as well as Nemours estate, Longwood Gardens, Brandywine Valley's arts, museums, and historic attractions, state parks, and more.

And there's plenty to enjoy right here on the Ivy Gables campus.
