SOCIAL, ENGAGED LIVING

Marilyn Camillo

After seeing Springhill several times, I realized this not your old retirement home, it your new beginning. A life here is full of energy. Our pool just opened and it wonderful. Corn hole , bocce, the trails to walk, grocery shopping and doctor appointments transportation, a supervised gym, dining, and dining delivery, and dining delivery. It's a resort!! Most and not least are friendships to be made. A new lease on life!

SCENIC CAMPUS

Joanne Smith

Springhill is the most wonderful place to live. I've never had so many friends and everyone here is happy and friendly. The grounds always look perfect, and there are lots of flowers, pretty flowering trees, and a beautiful pond. It's really very beautiful.

SECURITY DURING CHALLENGING TIMES

Spence Limbocker

When COVID first hit, it became very clear very fast that this was going to be a very, very safe place to live. We're part of a larger organization ... and they can bring an incredible amount of expertise. That's real important to know that they have people on their staff ... who have worked on similar kinds of crisis situations and bring experience and knowledge to their response.

A PLAN FOR THE FUTURE

Living at Springhill provides you with peace of mind. Knowing that you are living in a safe place with a wide variety of activities to keep your mind and body sharp and agile will give you a strong sense of well-being. From the receptionist, to the janitors, to the nurses, to the maintenance staff, and especially to the members of management who keep the facility functioning with a hallmark of excellence, Springhill fulfills every promise to the maximum.

RELAXED, MAINTENANCE-FREE LIVING

Zane Sandusky

It has been a great choice. I'm still driving a car so having an attached garage means no cleaning of snow off your car after a snowstorm; the campus roads and driveway are kept clear of snow; all the normal pain-in-the-neck household repairs are taken care of for you; the lawn and surrounding landscape is beautifully maintained. There are a multitude of group activities available, plus many more goodies.
